

Curtis T. Hill, Jr. is the Prosecuting Attorney for the 34th Judicial Circuit, Elkhart County, State of Indiana. A lifelong resident of Elkhart, Curtis is a graduate of Elkhart Central High School. He received his Bachelor of Science degree from the Indiana University School of Business and subsequently earned his Doctorate of Jurisprudence from the Indiana University School of Law in 1987. Prior to being elected Prosecuting Attorney for Elkhart County in November of 2002, Curtis was engaged in the private general practice of law while also serving as a Deputy Prosecuting Attorney in Elkhart County.

MR. CURTIS T. HILL, JR.
CHAIRMAN
GOVERNOR'S COUNCIL ON IMPAIRED
AND DANGEROUS DRIVING

Hill has been active through his service to a variety of boards and professional associations. He is currently serving on the board of governors for the Indiana State Bar Association as well as a board member for the Association of Indiana Prosecuting Attorneys. He is on the Governor's Council for Impaired and Dangerous Driving and has been appointed to the Governor's Methamphetamine Task Force. In addition, Hill serves on the board for the Elkhart Community Bank, the Greater Elkhart Chamber of Commerce, the Elkhart County Historical Society, and the Better Business Bureau. He is a member of the Elks Lodge #425, the NAACP (life membership), the Elkhart City Bar Association, the Indiana State Bar Association, and the State Board of Law Examiners Committee on Character and Fitness. He is also an Honorary Rotarian, provides volunteer work for the Elkhart County 4-H Extension Project Lead, and participates in the Elkhart Civic Theatre.

Hill has testified before Congress on "Methamphetamine in the Heartland" and has given a presentation on local law enforcement resources for the 2004 Northern Indiana Methamphetamine Summit sponsored by the Office of National Drug Control Policy Executive Office of the President of the United States.

Hill and his wife Teresa have five (5) children.